IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: See attached order (formal order to follow) Statement of Judgment by the Court:

THIS MATTER INITIALLY CAME BEFORE THE COURT on September 7, 2023 and was continued to a virtual hearing held September 21, 2023 on Plaintiff’s Motion for a Spoliation Instruction and Sanctions and Defendant’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Plaintiffs were represented by David Langfitt, Esq. and John Kassel, Esq. Defendant was represented by Andrew Fletcher, Esq. Having reviewed the motions and exhibits presented by the parties, reflected on the arguments of counsel, and considered the applicable law, the Court finds as follows:

Plaintiff’s Motion for a Spoliation Instruction and Sanctions is denied. The Court finds that Plaintiff has failed to meet its burden of proof on the issue of spoliation of evidence. Plaintiffs claim that Defendant has destroyed or failed to produce certain records in the NCAA Library dating back to 1934. Plaintiff’s largely rely on the 2021 testimony of Lisa Greer-Douglas to show the existence of these records. However, Plaintiff has failed to show any additional evidence showing these records truly existed. Instead, Defendant has shown evidence to the contrary. The Court finds that Plaintiff has failed to establish Defendant spoliation of evidence, and Plaintiff’s Motion is denied.

Defendant’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment is granted. The Court finds that § 33-56-180(A) applies to Defendant NCAA and will act as a limitation on liability to cap Plaintiff’s damages award. Defendant NCAA is a charitable organization for purposes of the statute because of its tax-exempt status under § 501(c)(3) of Title 26 of the US Code. Thus, Defendant’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment is granted and Plaintiff's damage award is to be capped in accordance with SC § 33-56-180(A).

On the issue of the charitable cap, however, the Court leaves open for the moment the question of how many "occurrences" may be involved in this case. Furthermore, the Court sees little reason to instruct the jury on the applicability of the charitable cap. In this way, should the Court be in error in its understanding of the law, and should Plaintiffs receive an award in excess of the cap, the matter can be addressed on appeal.

The Court would request that counsel for Defendant prepare a more formal order within 15 days which memorializes this ruling.
