The Tennessee Jury Verdict Reporter 2007 Year in Review

This important bound volume, the second in the series, 292 pp., has just been published, and is ready for immediate delivery. It includes detailed analysis of every kind of case in 2007, easily sorted and indexed. Over 20 individual reports are included, including car wrecks, medicals cases, discrimination suits, premises liability, plus breakdowns of loss of consortium and punitive damage claims. There is also an injury index, which places an average multiplier on several types of bodily injury. The book includes the full text of the reported cases in 2007, easily referenced by region, style, result and attorney. But this is the second edition, so all the reports and analysis cover a three-year period.

Wayne Hill, then age 47, was hired on 3-21-05 to do a basement remodeling job for Steven and Sheila Frisbee. As he began to work and install tile, Hill realized he first had to remove the linoleum that was stuck to the floor. Despite his best efforts, it was really stuck.

To solve the problem, Hill went to B&W Auto Parts for help. An employee first showed Hill a 3M product that was designed specifically for this purpose – removal of linoleum. Hill thought it was a bit pricey and asked for another option.

It was suggested by B&W Auto Parts
